

MARRIAGE MIRACLES INTENSIVE

A PROVEN CHRISTIAN THERAPEUTIC INTERVENTION TO SAVE DEEPLY TROUBLED MARRIAGES

Many couples are on the brink of marital collapse and are desperate for a LIFELINE. Couples who feel disengaged and disconnected from their partner often cry out in fear and anger or withdraw into loneliness. These emotions are disguised longings for reassurance and safe connection. When couples lose the ability to connect and feel safe, oftentimes they give up.

“You are so distant — I just don't feel in love anymore.”

Patrick and Linda Callahan have been counseling distressed couples for over three decades. Utilizing the model of a “MARRIAGE INTENSIVE WEEKEND,” groups of three to four couples will receive at least 25 hours of individual and group marriage therapy. Marriage intensive weekends have demonstrated over 90% effectiveness for instilling new hope in keeping a marriage intact and striving for the abundance God purposed.

“If we don't find a solution soon, I will be consulting a lawyer.”

Patrick and Linda are deeply trained in the principles of Emotion Focused Therapy as well as the clinical methods and strategies of John & Julie Gottman.

Intensives will be offered periodically throughout the year. For more information or to register for an event, contact patrick@abundantchristiancounseling.com or 352.359.7056.
